

Maintenance Volunteer (Weekdays)

Do you have experience working in construction, mechanics, plumbing, or general handiwork and have weekday availability?

We are in the process of updating and beautifying our zoo grounds and structures and could use the skills of those with backgrounds in these area!

If you are interested in volunteering with our maintenance department please email klerch@lvzoo.org with a description of your area of expertise, skillset, and availability.

Thank you!